Case No. 2:23-cv-00118-
 KHR

DEFENDANTS' OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR HEARING ON MOTION TO AMEND EXPERT DISCLOSURES

Defendants, Jetson Electric Bikes, LLC (“Jetson”) and Walmart Inc. (“Walmart”), collectively “Defendants”, by their attorneys, respectfully submit the following response to Plaintiffs’ information request for hearing on their pending Plaintiffs’ Motion to Amend Expert Disclosures (ECF No. 73) and Plaintiffs’ Memorandum in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion to Amend Expert Disclosures (ECF No. 76).

Through an email to Honorable Magistrate Klosterman’s chambers on October 3, 2024, Plaintiffs’ counsel’s paralegal submitted a request for “an oral argument pursuant to LR 7.1 for the Motion to Amend Expert Disclosures.” Defendants object to Plaintiffs’ informal request for a hearing on this matter. Local Rule 7.1(a) provides that motions will be decided on submissions unless oral argument is ordered, which is done so at the Court’s discretion. U.S.D.C.L.R. 7.1(a). As noted by Plaintiffs, this matter is fully briefed. At no time between the filing of the Motion (September 3) and now has the Court indicated that a hearing is necessary. Plaintiffs did not request a hearing in their Motion (ECF No. 76), nor in their Memorandum in Support (ECF No. 79). Plaintiffs elected not to file a reply, which would have been due on or before September 24, 2024. As such, Plaintiffs have waived their right to address any arguments raised in Defendants’ response.

The information and arguments necessary to address this matter are before the Court. Defendants respectfully request that the matter be decided on the briefing consistent with the local rules.

Dated this 3rd day of October 2024.
